

12 September 2022

Dear Principal,

As you will be aware, His Majesty the King & Queen Consort will be visiting Northern Ireland on Tuesday 13 September.

As a result, there will be traffic diversions in Belfast City Centre impacting Translink services in the area throughout the day with some delays expected particularly after school.

There may also be delays to EA yellow buses which travel through or around the City Centre.

For the latest public transport updates follow
@Translink_NI, visit www.translink.co.uk/royal or call 028 90 66 66 30.

Further information on His Majesty the King and Queen Consort's visit and itinerary is available via the links below.

We will be communicating this information via EA web and social media channels – and we would be very grateful if you can also help share this messaging with parents/carers and children and young people through your own channels as relevant and appropriate.

Regards,

Philip Moore
Head of Communications
